

From: shehu mohammed [mailto:shehu@mighty.co.za]
Sent: zondag 19 juni 2005 19:57
To: undisclosed-recipients:
Subject: A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

In view of the urgent and private nature of our intentions to go into a joint investment programme with your establishment, I am soliciting your humble attentions to this matter as we will like to discuss the terms and conditions of this investment policies before we can commence with the perfection of documentations that will assume this venture the beneficiary of the investment funds.

My clients (Abacha family-Late President of Nigeria) has in their disposal the sum of Twenty Five million United States Dollars that they wish for your ventures co-operation in securing and investing these funds into the financial system of your state without any complication, We have confidence in your investment opportunities to withstand the value of those funds for the required period of time we agree on.

I will also like you to treat this humble request with integrity and confidentiality as the political system in my nation demands that we secure and invest those funds now without delay. Please be fast to forward your private e-mail address, confidential phone number, and direct fax line so that we can communicate without further delay. Thanking you in anticipation of your humble cooperation. and God.

Please respond to: shehu@excite.it

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Shehu T. Mohammed (SAN)