Africa.

Dearest one,

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you.

I know my mail might be a surprise to you but never mind because I am contacting you in good faith. However, accept my sincere apologies if it doesn't meet your personal ethics, although there certain times in one's life that whether or not one indicates interest for certain assignment, people would still look up to him or her.

I am Miss Wilhelmina Lizwelicha, 22 years old native of Kenema district in the Eastern province of Sierra Leone. I am the only child of my parents late Engr. and Mrs Crispian Lizwelicha, who used to be a major dealer in gem-quality diamonds cum politician.

I was born out of tragic fate, my mother died of cancer when I was only four years old and I was brought up with great care and love by my father before he met his own untimely death on his way back from a business trip abroad.

When he actually arrived at the airport, his driver when to pick him and on their way home they had a fatal accident which killed his driver at the spot while my father spent three days in the hospital before he gave up the ghost.

After his burial, my uncle seized all my father's properties and investments because of our traditional believe that I as a lady has no part in the family inheritance since I am supposed to eventually get married and leave the home. It was really hard on me as I had nothing to get on because of my uncles wicked attitude.

However, my father told me an important secret while on his dying bed that he deposited the sum of five million, three hundred thousand US Dollars ( $5.3M) in a renown bank in neighbouring Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire, and also directed me to the documents of their ownership of the fund.

My uncle has no knowledge whatsoever about this and he has long relocated abroad with his children at the heat of the Sierra Leonean war. I'll give you the Bank details when I've heard from you and more trust develops.

I live in a missionary home in Abidjan at present, however there has been political instability and disturbances here as well in recent times in the country hence I want to transfer the fund abroad to an enabling and stable environment where Tax will not be much and use it for profitable venture. I'll need a foreign account and reliable partner who might as well guide me in investing to do so and I want you to help me in these regards.

I'll give you 10% of the money if you will offer me the necessary assistance in good faith.

Your interest and willingness to help me will in no small measure be a big relief to me in this time of need.

I want to hear from you, please kindly respond.

'Looking forward...,
Wilhelmina.
